Plenty of goodness, inside and out,
from innovative Italian furniture brand Paola Lenti

Keeping design, creativity, culture and innovation underfoot has been Paola Lenti's aim for more than two decades. The Italian furnishings firm uses cutting-edge techniques and new and innovative materials to create strikingly original indoor and outdoor seating, rugs, shades and tables with a variety of textures and applications. The family-run business continues to grow, ensuring that all its yarns and fabrics are still created exclusively in the hues and shades that company founder Paola Lenti originally intended. Sophisticated synthetics, crafted natural materials and vibrant shades keep the brand at the forefront of fabric design. paolalenti.it
