

A Vibrant Line-up

Too often is monochromatic minimalism considered the only way to achieve a sense of refinement. Paola Lenti indulges in some high-saturation hues for an outdoor environment that is both whimsical and warm.

Francesco Rota's new Oasi collection for Paola Lenti presents a colourful cache of furniture that will imbue any al fresco space with some pizzazz. The Guinco armchair by Francesco Bertoni for the brand presents an unprecedented take on outdoor furniture with its bent metal structure and vibrant finish. When paired with pieces like Paola Lenti's air rug, the brand's penchant for bright colours and use of durable outdoor fabrics converge to offer a collection that is sure to put anyone in a sunny disposition regardless of the conditions.
